Jan. 11th 1949

A meeting was held on Jan. 11th at the Ex. Ser. Men's Hut at 7.30.

The Pres. was in the Chair, & 41 members were present.

Apts. were received from: Mrs. Willmott, Miss Strick.

Miss A. Crabb. Mrs. Paddison. Mr. Bunt. Miss Allen

Miss Mitchell, Miss Cheeseman & Mrs. Kenton.

The President then said that she had to make an apology for the County Cooking Demonstration, Miss Dixon who was unable to give the supper dish Demonstration on account of influenza, but welcomed Mrs. Hensley from Blandford, who gave a very interesting demonstration of yeast cooking & a Brazen loaf.

Mrs T. Hyde, our local authority, proposed the vote of thanks. It was decided to substitute a yeast cooking competition for the supper-dish competition at the Feb. meeting.

The monthly business followed.

The Record was read & signed.

Budget

The Treas. then presented the 1949 Budget. Mrs Dennis suggested that the budget ought to include an effort for an outside charity, & after some discussion made a formal proposal that the Proceeds of the Biry & Buz Sale should be used in this way. Miss J. Scott seconded & it was carried by a substantial majority. Miss A. Scott then proposed & Mrs Osborne^{seconded} that the budget be adopted.

New members.

The following new members were welcomed: Mrs Miller, Mrs Rudd, Mrs Eva Cratt, Mrs Gill, Mrs Bradbury, and Miss Miller & Mrs Trotter who were not present.

Outing Fund.

The Pres. then raised the controversial subject of an Outing Fund. Mrs Dennis spoke against this on the grounds that we all lived on subsidies, & that the W.I. ought to eschew them on moral grounds.

but various members said that any extra social events were welcomed or present in lodges, that mainly a Whist Drive represented work & gifts from the members. The Pres. drew attention to the attitude of the Inset Exec. (to this question), the which deprecates an Outing Fund on these grounds: that in practice it has been found a frequent cause of dissension in a village, that it smacks of charity.

However, Mr. Lees proposed & Mrs. K. Pitcher seconded that this year a Whist Drive be run for this purpose & this was carried. The Sec. dealt with the County letter & mentioned the coming Book Drive, & the Pres. asked for more Blood Donors from lodges.

The Pres. read a letter of thanks for the toys sent to Battlecombe from the County Child Welfare Officer.

Feb.

Record

The Record was read & signed, nothing arising.
The Resolutions for the next $\frac{1}{2}$ yearly Council were read & the County letter dealt with.
The President then apologized for the absence of Mr. Beaumont-Skepp who had been called away suddenly on account of serious illness - his family & introduced Mr. Morris, Headmaster of Bridport Grammar School, who at a woman's notice from Miss Clifford had most kindly consented to speak. The subject chosen was the "Educational Dadder", & Mr. Morris gave a very clear & illuminating account of the educational opportunities for children today, & answered both general & personal questions in detail.

Birthday.

As it was Miss V. Lee's birthday she had most kindly celebrated it by providing an iced cake & jellies & arranged the games & dancing for the social $\frac{1}{2}$ hour with the help of Billy Darg.

Mystery Parcel

Parcels ^{money} had been collected by Miss R. Pitcher & Mr. Pitcher, & these were distributed as a musical game.

Home & County

Mr. Gaud & Mr. H. Pacey had earlier collected the 6^d for Home & County.

Nov. 8: 1949. Annual General Meeting.

Report of year 1948-49.

Our membership this year has been 64 of whom 9 were new members.

We have sustained a great loss by the death of Mrs Scott. We also regret the loss to the Institute of Mrs Chessman who has left the district, & of Miss Bryan who is attending a 2 yr. training course at Weymouth.

A committee of 10 was elected last November & we co-opted Mrs Paul at our first meeting & later Mrs Taylor. When it became clear that Mrs Scott was unlikely to be able to attend Committee meetings we asked Mrs Rudd to serve in her place.

The Committee has met 13 times & the attendance has been most regular.

Two members have attended all the meetings - six have missed once - two have missed twice.

We are glad to record much hard work, good team work & a ^{great} deal of happy companionship.

The Institute has met 11 times - the Ex-Servicemen's Club, & 1 afternoon Garden meeting was held

Before introducing our speaker, Mrs Jackman, Chairman of the Dorset Fed. & Miss Rimmer,
the County Secretary, who came with her,
the Pres. made a few remarks -

Pres's remarks

She spoke of a very happy & successful past year, stressing the work of the Committee & its friendly atmosphere, & the good backing of the Institute as a whole. She asked for greater punctuality, & suggested that apologies for absence would be appreciated. She also asked members who had had to miss a meeting, to try to find out what had been given out, & those who were present to try to tell those others about it.

Mrs Jackman

She then asked Mrs Jackman to address the meeting, but before doing so to present the 2nd prize in the County Soft Fruit Comp. to Mrs Paddison.

Mrs Keys proposed a vote of thanks to Mrs Jackman -
